

The English Language Centre, Brighton – Robert O’Neill Scholarship

This scholarship is in honour of Robert O’Neill who was a friend of ELC’s for nearly 40 years. Initially working on overseas teachers’ courses and being an academic advisor to ELC, he retained an office at school and could regularly be found in the teachers’ room passionately engaged in debate until just before his death in July 2014 at the age of 81.

The aim of the scholarship, funded by The English Language Centre, Brighton, is to give the opportunity for an ELT professional to attend the IATEFL Annual Conference for the first time.

The award consists of:

- registration for a Pre-Conference Event of the winner's choice
- registration for the IATEFL Annual Conference
- a year's IATEFL membership
- GBP 1000.00 towards conference related costs

To qualify you must:

- work in the fields of English language teaching or training, be committed to delivering in-service training and be interested in the use of technology in ELT
- have not previously attended the IATEFL Annual Conference
- be prepared to be interviewed by The English Language Centre about your experience at conference
- agree to submit a report by June 2020 about your conference experience and follow up plan, for possible publication by The English Language Centre

To be considered for the scholarship you must:

- submit a statement of between 400 and 500 words in which you:
  - outline briefly your teaching/training context
  - submit an action plan of what you would do to benefit your community with particular reference to in-service training and the involvement of technology

The submission deadline is 16.00 (UK time) on Thursday 4th July 2019. Early submissions are very welcome; late submissions will not be considered.

The results will be announced between Tuesday 27th August 2019 and Friday 6th September 2019. Please do NOT contact the IATEFL Head Office about scholarship decisions; the Scholarship Committee will send everyone the results as soon as they are available.
